Disc golfers throw for cause

Disc golfers had some good times Saturday, and left the Boys and Girls Club of Brownfield one step closer to meeting its start-up costs.

Brownfield Federal Credit Union's second annual disc golf tournament served as a fundraiser for the newly-formed local chapter of the nationwide after-school program.

"It's a new charity, and we're trying to help them get on their feet," said co-organizer Bobbye Jo Floyd.

Participants made their way through each of Coleman Park's 18 holes while perfecting their aim and enjoying the fall weather.

"I thought the tournament was a great success," said tournament co-organizer and Credit Union President Rhonda Duncan.

BFCU provided the prizes for the top three winners in each of the five divisions, leaving 100 percent of the proceeds from the $5 registration fees for the Boys and Girls Club. All participants also received a disc that was theirs to keep during and after the competition.

Toby Metcalf, co-organizer of the tournament and representative of the Basket Bashers of Brownfield, noted that the value of the disc was actually higher than the registration fee, easily justifying the expense for competitors.

"It's a win-win for the players and the charity," he said. "What we like about the Credit Union doing this is it brings disc golf into the community."
