Brownfield's pack of Cub tennis hitters suffered a 13-6 home loss against Snyder Tuesday.

The Cubs jumped out to a 4-3 lead over the Tigers after the doubles round in the match, getting wins from doubles partners Matt Garza and Jerry Alaniz, Kaley Kevil and Terra Benton, Brooklyn Ryan and Alisha Zamora, and Brook Baldridge and Marissa Mireles.

"We came out strong in doubles, but just lost too many close ones in the singles matches," said Coach Rich Hammons. "We were right there with them, and I am proud of how the team competed."

The Cubs ended up falling short to Snyder, with the final score being 13-6.

They lost three girls matches in third set tie-breakers and had several more go right down to the wire.

On the boys side, Matt Garza and Jerry Alaniz both fought back after losing the first set in their singles matches to win in third set tie-breakers.

"The players fought hard the whole way through and never quit," Hammons said. "We are seeing such great things from them."
