Locals to be in Levelland festival

The Levelland Rotary Clubs are pleased to announce that Brownfield area residents will be exhibiting at the Home for the Holidays Gift Festival at the new Mallet Event Center in Levelland Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 10 & 11.

Brownfield residents reserving booths at the show include George C. Howle, Jimmy Jones, and Susie Vincent. Loop resident Anna Reid will also be exhibiting her gift items at the show.

This is the third year for the Home for the Holidays Gift Festival which will feature over 100 vendor booths. Admission is $2 for adults and $1 for children.

The show will run from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 10 and from noon until 5 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 11.

The gift festival will feature gift ideas for the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays and will include arts and crafts, jewelry, home accents, seasonal decorations, furniture and more .

A brisket plate lunch will be available Saturday for $7 per plate. A free Christmas ornament will be given to the first 150 attendees each day.

Santa will be available to visit with children and for pictures.

Albert Flores
FOR Terry County Sheriff

I come to you today asking you to place your trust in me. I began my law enforcement career in 1986 with the Terry County Sheriff's Office. It has been a great honor and privilege to have worked with this great community. With your support for the position of Sheriff, I will continue to work hard for each and every one of you in this community.

Thank you,
Albert Flores
