LITTLE DRIBBLERS BEGIN
Little Dribblers Kaden McPherson and Juan Najera get busy on the court. The local Little Dribblers league opened their new season Thursday evening.

Lucky hoopster to shoot for cause

Making a free throw from half-court isn't just a way to show off your hoops skills - it could make you $10,000 richer.

Tickets - $5 each - are now available for Half-Court Shot, the latest fund-raiser from the Boys and Girls Club of Brownfield. The competition is set for halftime of the boys Lamesa game Tuesday, Jan. 29 at Cub Gym.

The organization's board of directors will draw a winner from their pool of tickets 24 hours before the event, then contact that person to remind him or her to attend the game. BGCB representatives will announce the winner's name at halftime of the game, then send him or her to half-court of the gym to attempt a shot. If the basket lands, the shooter will be awarded $10,000 from an insurance company contracted by BGCB.

"I think it's going to be fun, and it's going to be an exciting night," Board of Directors President Sheryl Vaughan told the Brownfield News. "Who wouldn't want to pay $5 and make $10,000?"

The winner of the drawing will also receive a free three-month membership to Fitness Zone, regardless if he or she makes the shot.

Tickets will be sold in a booth at all the Cub games before the Half-Court Shot. You can also purchase them by calling 893-2842.

BGCB's fund balance is now nearly halfway to the board's goal of $50,000 before they can open their doors to begin serving clients.
