Library announces new arrivals

Kendrick Memorial Library recently received the following new books:

"The Rope" by Nevada Barr (mystery) - Set in 1995, National Park Ranger Anna Pigeon wakes up trapped in a well and wondering how to escape and who put her there.

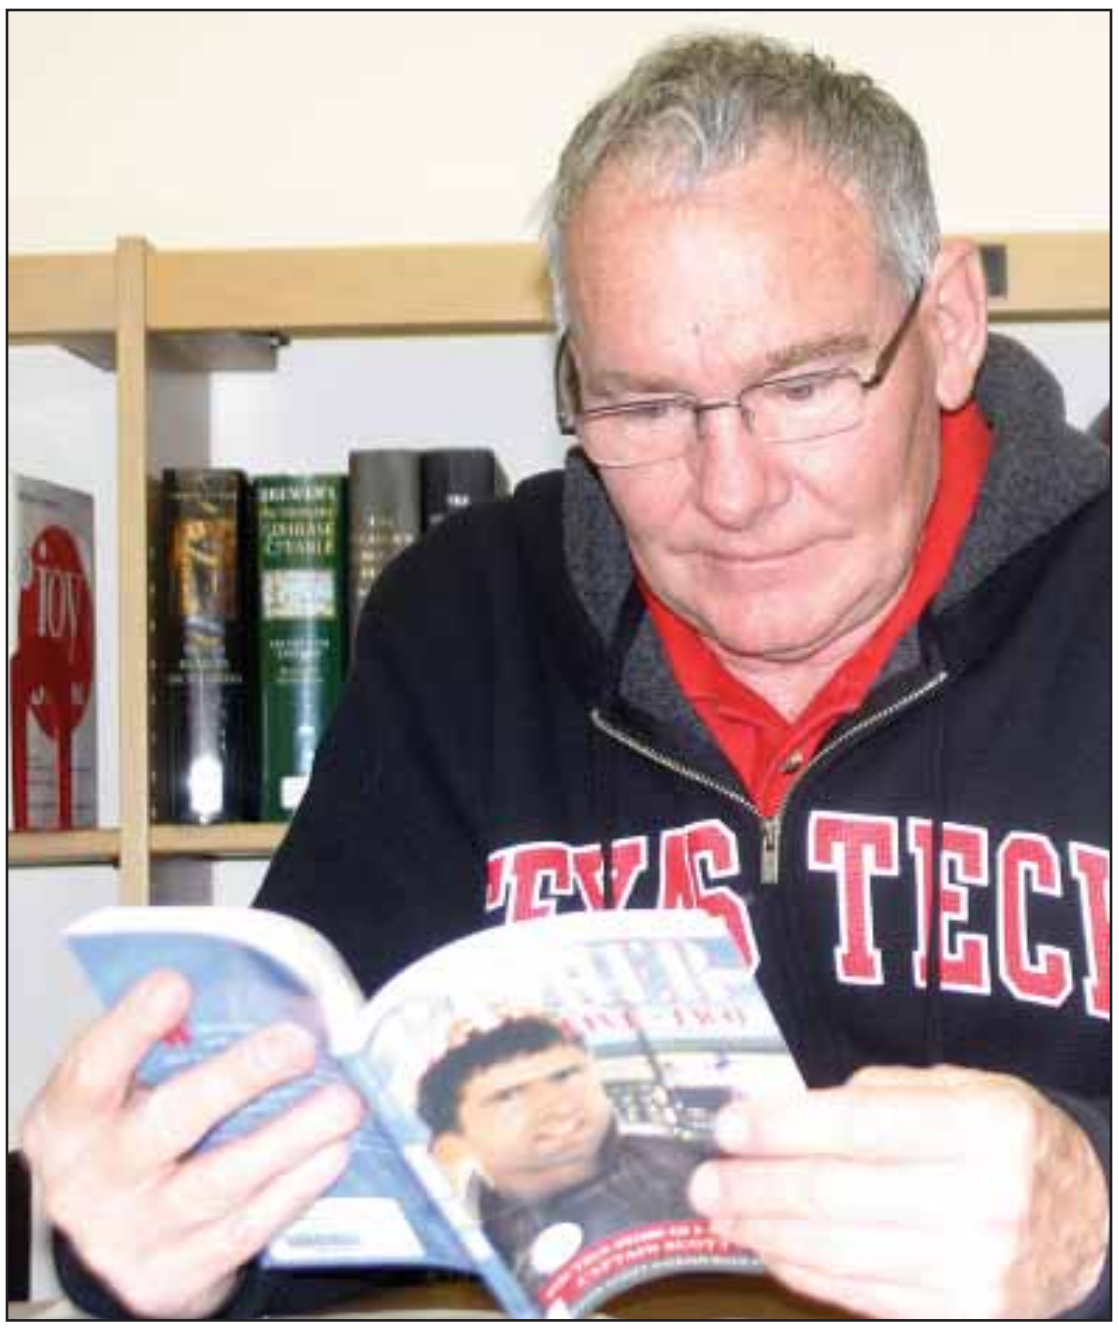
"Breaking Point" by C.J. Box (thriller) - A local business heads for the mountains claiming to scout elk, but evidence points toward him as the main suspect in a recent murder.

"The Last Runaway" by Tracy Chevalier (historical literature) - Set in 1850 Ohio, a young English immigrant defeats her homesickness by making new friends working with the Underground Railroad.

"Bloodfire Quest" by Terry Brooks (fantasy) - A mystical tree that maintains a barrier between good and evil is dying, strengthening the threat of evil in the land of Arborlon.

"Six Years" by Harlan Coben (thriller) - A college professor remains obsessed with the woman who broke his heart and married another man years ago.

"The Striker" by Clive Cussler (adventure) - Set in 1902, an inexperienced new detective investigates a suspicious accident at a coal mine.



Kendal Lawlis of Wellman skims through Captain Scott O'Grady's memoir. Kendrick Memorial Library recently received several new books.

"When a Heart Stops" by Lynette Eason (romantic suspense) - A medical examiner and an FBI agent, former high school classmates, reunite to search for a serial killer.

"The Breath of Dawn" by Kristen Heitzmann (romantic suspense) - A recently-widowed young father unexpectedly finds new love.

"Gotcha!" By Fern Michaels (mystery) - A grieving mother uses the help of the Sisterhood to determine if her greedy daughter-in-law was involved in her son's death.

"The Accursed" by Joyce Carol Oates (literature) - Set in Princeton, N.J., at the turn of the century, a young bride is abducted by the devil disguised as a European prince.

"Basher Five-Two" by Scott O'Grady (biography) - The true story of F-16 Fighter Pilot Scott O'Grady's mission.

"Alex Cross, Run" by James Patterson (thriller) - Detective Alex Cross becomes so occupied chasing a serial killer than he fails to realize a vengeance-seeking suspect of another case is also following him.

"Shadowkiller" by Wendy Corsi Staub (horror) - A happily married woman thought she had moved on from her troubled childhood, until a stranger who shares her history appears in her life.
