

Lady Cubs end season with five-game battle

Seniors honored at final game

By Brian Brisendine, News Editor

The Lady Cubs didn't go down without a fight Tuesday night in their final contest of the 2012 season, falling to the Lamesa Lady Golden Tors in a five-set match in Cub Gym.

The Lady Cubs were in sync with each other in the opening game of the match, outpacing the Lady Tors for a convincing 25-16 win.

Brownfield gave up several points to open the second game, but came back to tie the score and then take the lead, which both squads traded numerous times before Lamesa finally got the win, 25-21 to split the count.

Game three was another hard-fought duel with both teams fighting for the lead throughout the game.

The visiting squad eventually pulled ahead and squeaked by the Lady Cubs, 25-22, to take a 2-1 advantage.

Brownfield refused to give in and easily took the win in Game four, topping the Lady Tors, 25-14 to force a Game five.

The Lady Cubs lost their momentum heading into the final set and never had the lead.

The Lady Tors quickly worked their way to the 15-5 win, giving them the match as well.

Mallorie Ellis led the Lady Cubs with 11 kills on the night, followed by Dallas Bruns, who had eight of her own.

Sloane Holt and Emily Carmack each added three kills. Tessa Hope, Daniella Llanas and Tatyana Hudson contributed one kill each.

Tessa Hope was the Lady Cubs' top digger in the match, leading the team with 17, followed by Ellis with 16.

Hudson had six, while Brianna Barraza, Holt and Bruns each contributed five digs. Carmack had one.

Holt was the Lady Cubs' go-to setter on the night, leading the squad with 14 assists.

Ellis added nine and Hudson had two.

Ellis also was the Lady Cubs' top blocker, with four stuffs on the night. Bruns and Llanas had a pair each, followed by Holt and Carmack with one apiece.

Hudson was the strongest Lady Cub from the service line Tuesday night, notching four aces.

Head Coach Charity Welps thanked her senior players for their contribution to the Lady Cubs program for the last four years.

The girls and their parents were recognized before the match.

Dallas Bruns went up for a kill in Tuesday in Cub Gym.

Tessa Hope led the Lady Cubs with 17 digs Tuesday night in Cub Gym.

Tatyana Hudson had four service aces for the Lady Cubs in their final match of the year Tuesday night in Cub Gym.
