Have A Merry Christmas

BRMC is blessed to have hospital employees who strive for excellence in all they do and provide compassionate care for those we serve.

We are privileged to have doctors who support and serve our area with professionalism.

We are also blessed to have board members who truly care about making our hospital the best in our area.

I also appreciate the support that you as members of our service area give. We strive to be here for your health care needs.

So to each of you, I say THANK YOU.

My prayer is for each to have a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!
