4-H Varmint Hunt on tap

Terry County 4-H invites licensed hunters to capture bobcats, coyotes and other critters - for a cause.

The local 4-H group's newest fundraiser is a Varmint Hunt, set for Feb. 9-10.

Teams will consist of four people with an entry fee of $200 each. The first-place team will be awarded 50 percent of the total money collected from the entry fees, while the second-place team will be awarded 25 percent.

Participants will sign in and review the contest rules at 10 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 9 at the county showbarn on TX Hwy. 137. The 24-hour hunting period will follow from noon that day through noon Sunday, Feb. 10. The teams will then meet back at the showbarn for a final check-in and awards recognition.

Hunters will receive 10 points for each mountain lion they catch, five for each coyote, four for each bobcat, three for each red fox and two for each gray fox.

Other rules include:

1. Team members must stay together during hunt.
2. You may not shoot out of the cab of a truck.
3. You may not shoot from or across a public road.
4. At least 1 member must be at the sign up. Full team must be at the final check-in.
5. No pooling of animals.
6. 4 wheelers and ATV's are allowed.
7. Five-fox limit.
8. All late arrivals to final check-in will be disqualified. If full team in not at final check-in, team will be disqualified.
9. All animals must be harvested between noon Feb. 9 and noon Feb. 10.
10. No trapping, snares or baiting allowed.
11. You must call all animals with a mouth call or electronic call.
12. You cannot exchange animals with anyone else.
13. Teams must hunt together at all times.
14. All team members must have a valid hunting license.
15. In case of a tie, when you tag your last animal, record the time you tagged it. Whoever killed the last animal will be declared the winner.
